

TO: All MUNFA Members

FROM: The MUNFA Executive Committee

DATE: December 1, 2016

SUBJECT: CAUT's 4th Equity Conference

The MUNFA Executive Committee has approved the cost associated for one member to attend CAUT's 4th Equity Conference being held from February 24- 25, 2017, at the Courtyard Marriott in Toronto. The conference will bring together equity and academic staff association activists from across the country to discuss and develop ways to more effectively promote equity on our campuses by mobilizing members, negotiating and enforcing stronger collective agreement language, and building solidarity. This is an important event that will help associations and their members advance equity in the academic workplace.

For more information on the conference, including a copy of the agenda and hotel information can be found on the CAUT website at <https://events.caut.ca/equity-2017>. If you are interested in attending please send your intentions to MUNFA at munfa@mun.ca on or before January 13, 2017.
