President's Update

FOR AFTERNOON OF
Feb. 7, 2023

Negotiating Talks to Continue Wednesday

Negotiating has ended for today. Our team focused on one of our core priorities: lasting improvements for contractual faculty members.

The parties will meet again at 2 pm tomorrow, February 8th. This is good news! It means that MUNFA and our employer are talking again. It means our strike actions and solidarity are working. Onward together!

*In love and solidarity,
MUNFA President Ash Hossain*
