We are forwarding for your information, and at the request of Canadian Federation of Students, an announcement of a community forum entitled, "Fighting back against the attack on the next generation".

Hello MUNFA members,

The MUN Students' Union is hosting an event to build momentum in the fight for fairness for the next generation. We would like to invite members of the university and St. John's community to participate in the discussion on Thursday night. The event details are below.

Location: The Landing, Memorial University, University Centre 3018
Time: 7:00pm
Date: Thursday, February 6, 2014

Youth Voices: Fighting back against the attack on the next generation.

Our Federal Government is telling youth to expect less at every corner. Cuts to public services, low wages, less benefits, less environmental protections, and more student debt – to name a few. But young people are fighting back right across Canada.

Join Jessica McCormick, Chairperson of the Canadian Federation of Students, and Amy Huziak, the Canadian Labour Congress' Young Workers' Representative, as they discuss the Canadian attack on youth, and how we can work together to fight back for fairness for the next generation.
